MARCH 6, 2018 - OFA MARIN CLIMATE NEWS AND EVENTS

James Hansen - Columbia University: Today's governments are wittingly leaving young people with a grinding, growing climate mess. Delayed response of climate to human-caused rising atmospheric CO2 threatens to leave young people a situation out of their control. The primary action required to avoid that outcome is rapid reduction of fossil fuel emissions. However, our [...]

The Future of Transportation: Cleaner, Quieter, Faster, Cheaper, BioMarin, Magnolia Conference Room,
750 Lindero Street, San Rafael

America's "Car Culture" is pervasive, painfully inefficient, and terrible for the environment. Yet most people are unwilling to give up their cars because they provide relatively rapid, comfortable, and on-demand transportation. So, how will we ever get to a clean transportation system?

This program will focus on three overlapping solutions for passenger vehicle transportation:

- Electric Vehicles
- Autonomous Vehicles
- Shared Mobility/Ride Sharing

Come learn how rapid technological changes are impacting transportation efficiency, emissions, and modalities and how you can be part of the solution. Our expert and dynamic speakers will both educate and inspire you! This program is done in collaboration with DRAWDOWN: Marin.

Introduction and Panel Moderator:

Stephanie Moulton-Peters
Mayor, City of Mill Valley
Chairperson, Transportation Authority of Marin
